

Blue Sky Learning

Policy Statement for the Usage of Social Media

Rationale

Social media (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn) is a broad term for any kind of online platform which enables people to directly interact with each other. However, some games, for example Minecraft or World of Warcraft and video sharing platforms such as You Tube have social media elements to them.

Blue Sky Learning recognises the numerous benefits and opportunities which a social media presence offers. Staff, parents/carers and pupils/students are actively encouraged to find creative ways to use social media. However, there are some risks associated with social media use, especially around the issues of safeguarding, bullying and personal reputation. This policy aims to encourage the safe use of social media by Blue Sky Learning, its staff, parents, carers and children.

This policy is subject to Blue Sky Learning Codes of Conduct and Acceptable Use Agreements.

Purpose

This policy:

- Applies to all staff and to all online communications which directly or indirectly, represent Blue Sky Learning
- Applies to such online communications posted at any time and from anywhere.
- Encourages the safe and responsible use of social media through training and education
- Defines the monitoring of public social media activity pertaining to the school

The school respects privacy and understands that staff and pupils/students may use social media forums in their private lives. However, personal communications likely to have a negative impact on professional standards and/or the school's reputation are within the scope of this policy.

Professional communications are those made through official channels, posted on a school account or using the school name. All professional communications are within the scope of this policy.

Personal communications are those made via a personal social media accounts. In all cases, where a personal account is used which associates itself with the school or impacts on the school, it must be made clear that the member of staff is not communicating on behalf of the school with an appropriate disclaimer. Such personal communications are within the scope of this policy.

Personal communications which do not refer to or impact upon the school are outside the scope of this policy.

Digital communications with pupils/students are also considered.

Organisational control

Roles & Responsibilities

- The Senior Leadership Team (SLT)
 - o Facilitating training and guidance on Social Media use.
 - o Developing and implementing the Social Media policy
 - o Taking a lead role in investigating any reported incidents.
 - o Making an initial assessment when an incident is reported and involving appropriate staff and external agencies as required.
- Staff
 - o Know the contents of and ensure that any use of social media is carried out in line with this and other relevant policies
 - o Attend appropriate training
 - o To not name the school when posting comments on personal accounts using social media.

Process for creating new accounts

The school community is encouraged to consider if a social media account will help them in their work, e.g. a “Friends of Blue Sky Learning Page” Facebook page. Anyone wishing to create such an account must present a business case to the SLT which covers the following points:-

- The aim of the account
- The intended audience
- How the account will be promoted
- Who will run the account (at least two staff members should be named)
- Will the account be open or private/closed

Following consideration by the SLT an application will be approved or rejected. In all cases, the SLT must be satisfied that anyone running a social media account on behalf of the school has read and understood this policy and received appropriate training. This also applies to anyone who is not directly employed by the school, including volunteers or parents.

Behaviour

- The school requires that all users using social media adhere to the standard of behaviour as set out in this policy and other relevant policies.
- Digital communications by staff must be professional and respectful at all times and in accordance with this policy. Staff will not use social media to infringe on the rights and privacy of others or make ill-considered comments or judgments about staff. Staff must ensure that confidentiality is maintained on social media even after they leave the employment of the school.
- Users must declare who they are in social media posts or accounts. Anonymous posts are discouraged in relation to school activity.

- If a journalist makes contact about posts made using social media staff must follow the school media policy before responding.
- Unacceptable conduct, (e.g. defamatory, discriminatory, offensive, harassing content or a breach of data protection, confidentiality, copyright) will be considered extremely seriously by Policy Statement for Usage of Social Media This policy has been taken from SWGfL and has been adapted accordingly to meet the needs of Blue Sky Learning and will be reported as soon as possible to a relevant senior member of staff, and escalated where appropriate.
- The use of personal social media by staff whilst at work is not acceptable.
- The school permits reasonable and appropriate access to private social media sites. However, where excessive use is suspected, and considered to be interfering with relevant duties, disciplinary action may be taken
- The school will take appropriate action in the event of breaches of the social media policy. Where conduct is found to be unacceptable, the school will deal with the matter internally. Where conduct is considered illegal, the school will report the matter to the police and other relevant external agencies, and may take action according to the disciplinary policy.

Legal considerations

- Users of social media should consider the copyright of the content they are sharing and, where necessary, should seek permission from the copyright holder before sharing.
- Users must ensure that their use of social media does not infringe upon relevant data protection laws, or breach confidentiality.

Handling abuse

- When acting on behalf of the school, handle offensive comments swiftly and with sensitivity.
- If a conversation turns and becomes offensive or unacceptable, school users should report other users or their comments/posts and should inform the audience exactly why the action was taken.
- If you feel that you or someone else is subject to abuse by colleagues through use of a social networking site, then this action must be reported using the agreed school protocols.

Tone

The tone of content published on social media should be appropriate to the audience, whilst retaining appropriate levels of professional standards. Key words to consider when composing messages are:

- Engaging
- Conversational
- Informative
- Friendly (on certain platforms, e.g. Facebook) Personal use
- Staff

o Personal communications are those made via a personal social media accounts. In all cases, where a personal account is used which associates itself with the school or impacts on the school, it must be made clear that the member of staff is not communicating on behalf of the school with an appropriate disclaimer. Such personal communications are within the scope of this policy.

o Personal communications which do not refer to or impact upon the school are outside the scope of this policy.

o Where personal use of social media in school is suspected, and considered to be interfering with relevant duties, disciplinary action may be taken

Pupils

o Staff are strongly advised not to follow or engage with current or prior pupils/students of the school on any personal social media network account.

o The school's education programme should enable the pupils/students to be safe and responsible users of social media.

Parents/Carers

o Blue Sky Learning has an active education programme which supports the safe and positive use of social media. This includes information on the website.

o Parents/Carers are encouraged to comment or post appropriately about the school. In the event of any offensive or inappropriate comments being made, the school will ask the parent/carer to remove the post and invite them to discuss the issues in person. If necessary, refer parents to the school's complaints procedures.

Monitoring posts about the school

• As part of active social media engagement, it is considered good practice to pro-actively monitor the Internet for public postings about the school. This is to be carried out by the Principal.
